

The Role of an Elected Ambassador

Dorset Chamber of Commerce and Industry (“the Chamber”)

To become a member of Council and support Council in its role to lead on Chamber stakeholder engagement and policy development

- Ensure the Chamber is connecting and engaging with organisations in the external environment
- Make a valued contribution to debating key issues affecting businesses and the Dorset economy
- Inform the development of Chamber policy on key issues
- Inform the development of Chamber strategy and development of services
- Demonstrate the Chamber is engaged, forward-thinking and listening
- Ensure we remain relevant as a business support organisation

Representation

- Bring specific skills and expertise to the Chamber Council
- To represent the Chamber at Chamber events
- Represent the Chamber at external business events
- Represent the Chamber on other bodies
- Represent your business sector on the Chamber Council
- Represent the views of members and inform the Executive of services required
- Promote and encourage membership of the Chamber
- Champion the Chamber in the wider business community

Council meetings take place bi-monthly, usually in Bournemouth and Poole from 4.30pm to 6.00pm.

Ambassadors are expected to attend 4 out of 6 meetings per year.